

Transportation

SMARTER & SAFER ROADWAY SYSTEMS

Infrastructure improvement projects are demanding and require experience working with numerous federal, state and local entities. So whether the project is a rural town road or a complex segment of the national highway system, our transportation professionals implement innovative solutions for the success of every project.

20⁺
LPA
certified professionals

Engineering Services:

Roadways: Municipal roadway, turnpike & highway design, constructability, stormwater quality & management, utilities conflict resolution, Right-of-Way plan development, sidewalk & bikepath design, NEPA compliance & environmental permitting, public engagement

Safety & Traffic: Capacity analysis, traffic studies & mitigation, intersection design, signal analysis & design, public coordination and outreach

Drainage: Pre/post condition analysis, closed system design, pollutant loading, BMP selection & design, culvert modeling & design (including energy dissipation), MS4 compliance

How we help:

Our ability to analyze and consider all design controls assures an efficient, cost-effective and sustainable design for all modes of transportation. Hoyle Tanner's goal of providing innovative and practical solutions is the foundation of every effort undertaken by our transportation engineers.

